Society Prepares
For Lenten Season;
Entertaining Ends

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were the honor guests last evening of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Straus at the last of the cabinet dinners for the Chief Executive for the season of 1907-8. The table decorations consisted of quantities of Richmond roses and maidenhair ferns.

Invited to meet the guests of honor were Senator and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew, Gen. and Mrs. Stewart L. Woodford, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Darwin C. Kinsley, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Seth Low, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Isador Straus, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Parsons, the Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Robert Shaw Oliver, Herbert Knox Smith, the Rev. Dr. Francis, president of Brown University; President John H. Finley, of the College of the City of New York; Mrs. Finley; Mr. and Mrs. William Berrie, of Brooklyn; Miss Boardman, and Mrs. Schaffer.

Mrs. Roosevelt was hostess at a box party at the concert of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra yesterday afternoon at the New National Theater. Her guests were Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. William Berrie, of Brooklyn; Miss Boardman, and Mrs. Schaffer.

Vice President Honor Guest.

The Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks were the guests complimentary to whom Senator and Mrs. Dryden entertained at dinner last evening. Invited to meet them were Senator Gallinger, Senator Dillingham, Representative and Mrs. J. Van Vleet Oloott, Representative and Mrs. J. Sloan Fassett, General and Mrs. Gillespie, Maj. and Mrs. Charles McCawley, Mr. and Mrs. James Harlan, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee, General and Mrs. Draper, Colonel and Mrs. Kaser, Miss Cow, and Mrs. Cloyce.

Mrs. Fairbanks and Mrs. Timmons left Washington today for New York, where they will make a few days' visit before going to Lakewood, N. J., for a stay of several weeks.

McLeans Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean entertained at luncheon yesterday, complimentary to the Governor of California and Mrs. Gillett. The guests invited to meet them were Mrs. Hunt Slater, Mrs. Hudekoper, of Philadelphia; Prince Koudachoff, of the Russian Embassy; Mr. Schroeder, and Col. and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins.

Mrs. Charles Gordon Bennett entertained at tea yesterday afternoon in her home on Massachusetts avenue. The decorations were unusually attractive, the color scheme being yellow and white. The center of the table was of jonquils and white hyacinths, with yellow topped silver candelabra. Mrs. Bennett wore a handsome pink gown of Irish crochet lace and chiffon. She was assisted by Mrs. Depew, Mrs. Dwight, and Mrs. Goldsborough.

Mrs. John W. Foster was hostess at luncheon yesterday in her home on Eighteenth street.

Mrs. Ricós' Card Party.

Mrs. Fannie Ricós, of the Portland, entertained a card party yesterday afternoon. Additional guests came in later in the afternoon for tea.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles E. Kaldenbach announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to Arthur Garfield Homer, at St. Patrick's Church, Monday, March 2, by the Rev. Father Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer left immediately after the ceremony for a trip South.

Nabucos Dinner Hosts.

The Brazilian Ambassador and Mme. Nabuco were hosts at dinner last evening in honor of the Cuban Minister and Mme. Quesada.

The other guests were the Naval Attache of the Russian Embassy and Mme. Nebolsine, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Watson, of the British embassy; the First Secretary of the Colombian Legation and Mrs. Guzman, the First Secretary of the Spanish Legation and Mme. Pastor, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, Dr. and Mrs. Chataud, Mrs. Symons, Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cuyler, the Russian minister, Mehmed Ali Bey; the first secretary of the Russian Embassy, Prince Koudachoff; the Russian Legation of Norway, Mr. Skjybak, and the counselor of the Brazilian Embassy, Mr. do Amaral.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Root were hosts at dinner last evening in their home on Rhode Island avenue.

General and Mrs. Sanger, who recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edith Sanger, to J. Mandeville Carle, were hosts at dinner last evening in honor of their daughter and her fiancé.

Law School Dance.

The class of 1908 of the Georgetown University Law Department entertained at a dance at the Arlington last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Foster were among those entertaining at luncheon yesterday.

The newly appointed Japanese ambassador, Baron Takahira, entertained the members of the embassy staff at an informal dinner last evening as a farewell to the Counselor of the Embassy and Mme. Miyakawa, who left Washington today for San Francisco, from where they will sail for Japan.

Gillette Leave.

The Governor of California and Mrs. Gillette, who have been entertained so extensively for the past week, which they spent in Washington, are leaving Washington today for their home in California.

Mme. Hauge, wife of the late minister from Norway, who has been visiting her mother Mrs. Todd in Louisville, Ky., has arrived in Washington, and is occupying her new home, on Massachusetts avenue.

Mme. Jussierand, wife of the French ambassador, will be hostess at a unique entertainment tomorrow afternoon, having issued cards for a tea in compliment to Mme. Mehmed Ali Bey, wife of the new Turkish minister. The unusual feature of the affair will be the total absence of men as the little Turkish woman, according to the customs of her country, must never unveil her face in the presence of any man other than her husband.

This tactful deference to Turkish traditions is supplementary to a pretty compliment paid Mme. Mehmed recently by Baroness Mayor des Planches, wife of the dean of the Diplomatic Corps, the Italian ambassador, who introduced her to her colleagues in the corps on a similar occasion.

Mme. Jussierand will be assisted in the hostess duties of the afternoon by the wife of the Naval Attache, Mme. de Blaupre, and the wife of the third secretary of the embassy, the Viscountess de Martel.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis entertained a large dinner company of young people last evening.

Mme. Quesada will be at home tomorrow for the last time this season.

Mrs. Leutze Entertains.

Mrs. Leutze entertained a bridge party of seven tables in her home in the Navy Yard. Additional guests came later for tea.

The members of Carroll Council, Knight of Columbus, entertained their friends at a very enjoyable dance in their hall last Monday evening. A pleasing feature of the dance was a grand march, which took place immediately before intermission. The march, which was directed by J. H. Pellen, was led by M. J. Wall and Miss E. L. Bryan. After refreshments dancing continued until midnight.

The affair was in charge of M. J. Wall, as chairman, assisted by J. H. Pellen, W. A. Eucher, George C. Thompson, and J. J. King.

The reception committee was composed of the members in charge of the affair, assisted by P. J. Halligan, G. T. Kolb, G. H. Dorsey, R. De Vaney, J. R. Dougherty, T. E. Petty, J. J. Kane, G. H. Eucher, J. J. Cook, J. J. Buckley, C. B. F. Haller, J. Hayes, W. J. Huhn, F. Mullin, and W. D. Wilcox.

Miss Frederica Morgan, daughter of Col. and Mrs. James Morris Morgan, of Twentieth street, is the guest of Mrs. John W. Frick, of Roland Park, Baltimore, for a few days.

Vanderbilts Leave.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vanderbilt, who have spent the gay season in Washington, occupying the house 1707 New Hampshire avenue, have returned to their home in New York.

The Misses Gaskins, assisted by Miss Collins, gave an impromptu dance in their home, 141 Twenty-ninth street northwest, last evening.

Mrs. Edward Ives and the Misses Ives, wife and daughters of Major Frank Ives, U. S. A., retired, have arrived in Washington from a three years' absence in Paris. They are the guests of Major Ives' mother, Mrs. Cora Semmes Ives, at the Graton.

After a short visit here Mrs. Ives and her daughter will join Major Ives in San Diego, Cal., where they will establish their future home.

Theater Party.

Mrs. Edward McCormick-Green, of Virginia, entertained a theater party last evening. Her party included a number of out-of-town friends. After the performance Mrs. Green was hostess at a supper for her guests at the New Willard.

Captain and Mrs. Beach, 1811 H street, have returned to the city and have opened their house for the spring months.

Miss May Lemon, of Charlottesville, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James L. Slayden.

Representative and Mrs. Tirrell of Massachusetts are at Atlantic City, where they are stopping at the Marlborough-Blenheim.

Miss Helen Boyd is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Boyd in their home in Greensboro, N. C.

Mrs. Charles Pitts, of Chicago, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Minnetta, 1710 P street.

Mrs. Vrooman's Tea.

Mrs. Frank Vrooman entertained at tea yesterday afternoon complimentary to her house guest, Mrs. Genevieve Wright, of Danville, Ill. Mrs. Vrooman wore a handsome gown of white silk and Irish lace. Assisting Mrs. Vrooman were Miss Pansy Perkins, Mrs. George Wales, and Miss Edith Willis, of Champagne, Ill., who is the house guest of Mrs. Vrooman.

Miss Wales and Miss Willis presided at the tea table, which had an attractive centerpiece of jonquils in a large silver bowl. General and Mrs. Black were present during the reception and assisted his daughter in receiving.

Mrs. Kate Kragin, Miss Port, and Miss Taft, of Avondale, Cincinnati, Ohio, who have been the guests of Mrs. C. W. Peters, left Washington yesterday for Atlantic City.

The old Episcopal Church at Oxer Hill, Md., was yesterday afternoon the scene of the wedding of Alfred E. Thorn, of Silesia, Md., and Miss Annie W. Turner. The bride was gown in white satin, and carried Bride roses.

After a brief trip Mr. and Mrs. Thorn will make their home at Silesia, Md.

Today, Ash Wednesday, marked the beginning of Lent, and society, for the day at least, laid aside all fads and frivolities for the sackcloth and ashes which once prevailed throughout the entire forty days previous to the Easter-tide.

The calendar for the day was singularly free from dates, and the churches were well attended by prominent matrons and maids who only yesterday were busy with the more earthly functions of luncheons, teas, and the like.

Bridge, which occupied every waking moment of society during the Lenten season last year, is not so popular this year, and the days of fasting and prayer will be unlabeled with innumerable luncheon dinners, and teas. The most of these will be too large to be termed strictly informal, but will lack the formal flavor which pertains to most of the functions of the gay season.

Townsend—Davis Tea.

Miss Helen R. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harvey Davis, of Woodbine, Howard county, Md., was married to W. Belt Townsend son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. D. Townsend, of Woodmore, Prince George county, Md., by the Rev. Fred L. Power, pastor of the Methodist and Avenue Christian Church, Washington, D. C.

The only witnesses to the ceremony were Miss Fannie Ridely and Griffith Davis and Francis T. Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend will reside at 141 West Lanvale street, Baltimore.

The Misses Perkins, daughter of a niece of Senator Perkins of California, entertained at a luncheon of twenty-two covers yesterday in their apartment in St. Leonards Court. The table decorations were red roses.

Senator Perkins was host at a dinner Monday evening in honor of Governor Gillette at Rauscher's.

Children's Class Play.

The primary and intermediate classes of Gunston Hall gave a delightful entertainment Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the gymnasium of the school. The hall was beautifully decorated, and the following program was given by the pupils:

"How the Story Grew," a play by the following children, between the ages of seven and ten: Elizabeth Brand, Clara Mallison, Gladys Edgerly, Virginia Hoover, Beatrice Edgerly, and Margaret Watson.

"A Love of a Bonnet," a play by Margaret Clements, Elizabeth Mitchell, Constance Springer, Gladys Edgerly, Overman, Marian Crenshaw, and Helen Swornsted.

"The Cook," a little French play, by Marguerite Capperton, Dorothy Taylor, Helen Swornsted, Louise Bausch, Rhoda Milliken, Sallie Dawes, Marjorie Johnson, Gladys Edgerly, and Eugene Morrison, concluded the program.

Mrs. Oliver Wood, of Bancroft place, was hostess at tea yesterday afternoon complimentary to Gen. and Mrs. Stewart Woodford, of New York, who came to Washington to attend the dinner given in honor of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt last evening.

Clinton Stewart was host at a box party at the Columbia Theater last evening at the performance of "Toldies."

After the performance of the "Rose of the Rancho" Monday night, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Hillman were hosts at a beautifully appointed dinner of twenty covers, in compliment to Mrs. Frances Starr. The affair, which was held in a private dining room at Harvey's, was tastefully decorated in a colorful scheme of pink, roses, tulips, and ribbon, with pink-shaded candelabra at either end.

The guests were Miss Starr, Mrs. A. S. Ruker, of New York; Miss Clarence Lorraine Tuck, of New York; Miss Ada Heller, of Winchester; Miss Edith Hillman, Miss Elizabeth Farver, Miss Helene Barchfeld, Miss Selma Greenapple, and Miss Edith Auerbach; and Dr. Louis Jacobs, of Philadelphia; Henry Kern, of New York; Harry T. Katz, of Philadelphia; A. Schiffe, Zion Burns, of New York; B. Aaron, of Philadelphia; J. Robinson, of New York; Tyler Nordlinger and Gilbert Beninger.

Mrs. Sol Meyer, of the Ashley, will be at home Friday afternoons during March.

A very pretty wedding took place Sunday at the new temple, corner Sixth and I streets, when Miss Rose Hirsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hirsch, of Washington, was married to Nathan Eskin, also a resident of Washington.

The bride, who wore a white messaline gown, with a tint of cream, trimmed in Irish point lace, carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Pauline Hirsch attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a severe princess white dress, with a crown and carrying La France roses. The bridesmaids, gowned in white mulls over pale pink tulle and carrying pink Eridoloid roses, were Miss Ella Wolf, Miss Sadie Pelzman and Miss Helen Schwartz.

Mr. Eskin's best man was Jacob Schwartz, who, the ushers were Samuel Hirsch, Frederick Pelzman and Edward Schwartz. The ushers in attendance on the bridesmaids were Arnold Hirsch, Walter Soudmeier, Alfred Pelzman and Louis Rudolph.

After the ceremony a dinner and reception were given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hirsch.

Comparison

Is the test we seek. That's just what every contemplating purchaser of a player piano should desire—the best values can be thus obtained—and, after all, it's the values that you buy.

When we speak of the LAUTER HUMAN PLAYER PIANO as an instrument embodying such principles and features as are to be found only in instruments of the highest character, we are prepared to prove to you the strength of this statement. Not alone is it a high grade instrument, but a 20th century model—two pianos in one case and the price is as much as $300.00 less than any other high grade instrument and of interest to you? ## MRS. ROOSEVELT TO TAKE CRUISE

The Mayflower Will Leave Tomorrow for Mississippi River.

It was disclosed today that the yacht Mayflower is to leave soon for the Mississippi river, where Mrs. Roosevelt will go aboard with a party of friends for an extended cruise.

It was known that the Mayflower, which has been fitted for an extraordinarily long voyage, would leave the Washington navy yard tomorrow under command of Commander Vogelesang. Her destination has been guarded, however, and all her movements kept secret.

From Washington the Mayflower will go direct to Norfolk, her first stop, where it is rumored a party of specially chosen officers will go aboard. She will then go down the coast to the Gulf of Mexico, stopping en route for target practice at Guantanamo. From there she will proceed to the Mississippi river, at what point Mrs. Roosevelt and her party will go aboard, or what their destination will be has not been divulged. It is said that once the party is aboard the Mayflower's movements will depend upon the inclinations of the voyagers.

Orders were issued today detaching Ensign K. E. Ingersoll from duty in the Bureau of Ordnance and assigning him to duty on board the Mayflower. The change becomes effective immediately and he will probably make the cruise.

LECTURE FOR HOSPITAL

"ON THE MAN OF DESTINY"

Dr. Conde B. Pallen will deliver a lecture Saturday night at 8 o'clock at Gunston Hall, on "The Man of Destiny." The lecture will be for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital. Dr. Pallen is well known in Washington as a lecturer of ability, and this fact, together with his offer to lecture for the benefit of the hospital, assures a large attendance.

Although the hospital is still comparatively in its infancy, it is already doing efficient work under the sisters in charge, the rich and poor alike being cared for with equal attention.

EXPERT TESTIMONY IN HARPER HEARING

More expert testimony on the beneficial effect of "Curfordhake" was given in the Police Court today at the trial of R. N. Harper, charged with an alleged violation of the pure food act of June 30, 1906.

The testimony today was given by prominent Washingtonians, who declared they had used the headache remedy for several years and found most efficacious in easing their pains. Former District Chemist Hurd said "Curfordhake," when taken according to directions on the bottle was not harmful preparation. He differentiated between poisons and poisonous drugs, and declared "Curfordhake" came under neither head.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

A woman will never admit her feet are big unless they aren't. Optimism is thinking you are enjoying life when you know you aren't. A man's conscience never bothers him till he's ill, and a woman's except when she's happy.
